Charge Two With Highland Robbery

Highland Youths Who Were Beaten Up and Robbed Saturday Night Identified Two Kingston Men As Their Assaulters—Troopers and Police Work on Case.

Edward Smith of 62 Pierpoint street and John Koslowski of 169 Perry street were placed under arrest Tuesday night by Officers Keresztes and Urban Healer on a charge of being the men who held up and robbed John Castaleno and Joseph Pass at Highland Saturday night. The two men were later identified at the police headquarters by the Highland youths as the men who robbed and beat them up at the Castaleno residence and then made away in a Chevrolet car.

Working on the slender clues supplied by the Highland youths, Sergeant Lockhart and Corporal Baker began a check up Tuesday to locate the driver of the Chevrolet car. The only information which Castaleno and Pass could supply was that the car was a gray Chevrolet coupe with the handles missing from the doors and that the license number was 2H. Working on the theory that the car must be a 1927 car, as that was the year in which the Chevrolet company put out a gray car, the State Troopers began a check-up of the 1927 model Chevrolet coupes in the county and particularly those in Kingston and about the vicinity of Highland. The further down the road in which the highwaymen made away was minus a door handle was of assistance in locating the car.

After a check up of the cars, Sergeant Lockhart conferred with Chief of Police Wood and Sergeants Shupine and Phinney and it was but a short time before Smith and Koslowski were placed under arrest.

Deny Knowledge of Affair.

They denied having knowledge of the affair. Later they were both identified by the Highland men as the two who held them up and robbed them. Smith and Koslowski were locked up in jail without bail on a charge of robbery, first degree, and this morning they were taken to Highland for arraignment by Corporal Baker and Deputy Sheriff Constable. According to the story of Castaleno and Pass, they were at the home of Castaleno's father-in-law at the village of Highland on the Milton road Saturday evening about 10 o'clock. As they were leaving the house they were confronted by two men armed with revolvers who compelled them to stick up their hands and then the two robbers went through their clothing and took money amounting to about $30, and a watch. After robbing them, the bandits beat up Castaleno and Pass and then disappeared in a Chevrolet toward Kingston.

The sheriff's office was notified and Sergeant Lockhart at Highland Tuesday the Troopers began a quiet investigation which led to the arrest of the two men. The watch taken from the victims of the hold-up has been recovered. When arraigned at Highland, the defendants pleaded not guilty and the hearing was adjourned to next Tuesday. They were represented by Chris J. Flanagan.

AMERICANS TOO BUSY TO DREAM OF WAR

London, Feb. 8 (AP).—Americans are too busy with their own domestic affairs to dream of war. J. A. Spencer, former editor of the Westminster Gazette, declared today in a statement concerning his recent trip to America. He said he thought that officially there was a certain chill in the relations between American and Great Britain because of the failure of the recent Geneva naval conference, but that this official chill was not reflected by the American people, who feel good will for Great Britain.

Police Enforce Muzzling Order

Five People Receiving Rabies Treatment for Bites Inflicted by Rabid Dog Killed by Police—Six Dogs Placed in Gas Box Tuesday.

The police department is busy enforcing the order issued by the board of health requiring all dogs allowed to run at large to be muzzled, and Tuesday afternoon six dogs were killed in the gas chamber at police headquarters. All six dogs were ill. They appeared to be paralyzed in the rear quarters.

A check up of those bitten by the rabid fox terrier that ran wild on Wall street and North Front street last Friday shows that five people were bitten by the animal before it was killed. All five people are now receiving treatment by injection of rabies serum.

The five people bitten were:

Mrs. Harold Keator of Lake Katrine, who was attacked on Wall street and bitten in the leg.

John W. Brink, 41, of Saugerties, who was bitten in the leg on North Front street.

Robert Mericle, 16, of 77 Malden Lane, who was bitten in the leg at Prospect and Henry streets.

Evelyn Larios, 5, of 218 Washington avenue, who was bitten in the leg on Wall street.

Everett Wells, 6, of 223 Hurley avenue, who was bitten in the leg on North Front street.

The Larios girl, who is the daughter of Stephen Larios, the proprietor of the Liberty Restaurant on Wall street, did not receive her first treatment of the serum until this morning when she called at the board of health office with her father and the serum was injected by Dr. Connolly.

The order requiring all dogs allowed to run the street to be muzzled will be in force until rescinded by the board of health. Dog owners who do not want to muzzle their dogs should be sure and keep the dogs tied up at home.

City's Streets A Glare of Ice

Pedestrians walked in slippery places Tuesday night and today, for the rain of early Tuesday evening froze as fast as it fell, spreading an icy sheathing over streets and sidewalks, causing many minor injuries from falls. The only accident that was reported to the police, however, as a result of icy condition was that of the skidding of the Glasco bus on Flatbush avenue in which two women were slightly hurt.

The rain began falling during the early evening hours and soon the walks and streets were a glare of ice. Unwary pedestrians as they left the house suddenly sat down as they struck the ice. Today many were nursing bruised knees and legs.

Auto drivers found it necessary to drive slowly, even when tires were equipped with chains, as cars skidded easily on the ice covered roads. The rain continued falling throughout the night and during the early morning hours of today.

The trolley system was not interrupted by the storm as the tracks were liberally sprinkled with sand to prevent the car wheels from slipping. On the Broadway Hill the trolley cars proceeded slowly to avoid accidents.

Early Tuesday evening the board of public works had the Wurts street hill and approach to the Rondout Creek Bridge covered with sand.

Lindbergh Off For Havana, Cuba

Confident He Would Land at the Cuban Capital at 4 P. M.—Flying Conditions Were Ideal at the Take Off.

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Feb. 8 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh hopped off at 6:35 a. m. today on his 750-mile flight to Havana, Cuba.

President Borno, General Russell, American high commissioner, and other officials were present at Bowen Field and said farewell to the Lone Eagle.

After thanking the President for his reception, the flier climbed in the silver winged Spirit of St. Louis and started for his last port of call on his good will flight.

Flying conditions were ideal when Lindbergh took off.

The flier arrived at the field at 6 a. m. with General Russell and Mrs. Russell. He found 500 persons already there to see his start. He stowed a bag of official mail, half a dozen sandwiches and a canteen of water into the plane.

Lindbergh circled over the city followed by the escort flying in double formation. Lindbergh flew over the field again and then headed for Havana.

Before departing he said he was confident he would land at the Cuban Capital at 4 p. m. today.

Havana, Feb. 8 (AP).—Reports were received here this morning that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh passed over the town of San Luis in the province of Oriente, near Santiago de Cuba, at 9:45 a. m.

Warburton Mayor Of Palm Beach

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 8 (AP).—A social landslide today had swept Major Barclay H. Warburton into the mayor's chair here.

The former Philadelphia publisher, made no campaign and solicited no support, but the polls yesterday presented a scene of vigorous and locally unprecedented electioneering—as accomplished mostly by the matrons and debutantes of the elite winter colony here. These stepped from the supposedly sedate pages of the social register and were as brisk, tireless and effective in their efforts as the proverbial ward-heeler.

A margin of more than four to one for their candidate rewarded their dynamic efforts. Major Warburton received 82 votes out of a total of 653 cast. Of his opponents, J. M. Clifton had 190, Benjamin Hoffman 42, and Franklin P. Eastman 29.

To Miss Eleanor Chase went credit for the day's outstanding maneuver, her feat of prevailing on a councilman candidate of an opposition ticket to hand out cards emblazoned with "Vote for Warburton". Aiding in the all-day rally against tardy and apathetic voters were Miss Marjorie Oelrichs, New York, Anita Loos, novelist, and her husband, John Emerson.

Limousines of other prominent matrons here wended their way through the city throughout the day seeking eligible persons to do their bidding for the Warburton ticket. One dilatory husband was lured from the golf links to the ballot box.

Major Warburton called his victory a triumph "for friends of good government in Palm Beach."

DRANK TOO MUCH, TOOK OVERCOATS, FINED $10

George Delaney and James Bradley, both of this city, were fined $10 each and given suspended jail sentences of thirty days for petit larceny by Police Justice Charles H. Bennett of Saugerties Monday evening. The two were arrested here by Captain A. W. Richter of the Saugerties police and Troopers Storm and Kling Monday and took to Saugerties, charged with stealing overcoats Saturday night belonging to patrons of Mulford's Hotel.

According to the Saugerties Daily Post, the two men claimed they were under the influence of drink when they took the coats and did not mean to steal them. The coats were returned to their owners. A blanket and motorometer were stolen from a car near Mulford's but they denied connection with that theft.

DRUNKENNESS IN MONTREAL INCREASED 50 PER CENT

Montreal, Feb. 8 (AP).—Alderman A. A. Desrosches asserted before city council that drunkenness in Montreal had increased 50 per cent in 1927 over 1926 and laid the blame on "blind pigs". He declared that a number of young girls of good family had been found in such establishments and asked adoption of a motion addressed to the Legislature calling for a law that would make such persons liable to a fine of $100 or two months in jail. The motion was passed.

LEHIGH VALLEY CARS WRECKED IN CRASH

Phillipsburg, N. J., Feb. 8 (AP).—Four cars and the locomotive of a Lehigh Valley train carrying express from Buffalo to Jersey City were wrecked today when the train crashed into derailed cars of a west-bound freight train near Green's Bridge on the outskirts of this town. Edward O'Connor, fireman of the express train, was slightly injured. All traffic between Bound Brook, N. J. and Easton, Pa., was detoured over the tracks of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

DISPLAY MODEL OF "SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS"

A scale model of Col. Charles H. Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis" is being exhibited in the show window of E. Winter's Sons store on Wall street. The model was made by Frank "Dutch" Carter, local taxi driver, and will "take off" and fly under its own power. The model is constructed to scale and carries out in detail the lines of the famous transatlantic plane. It has approximately three feet wing spread.

SIX INCOMING LINERS FOG BOUND IN HARBOR

New York, Feb. 8 (AP).—Six incoming liners, with 1,600 impatient passengers aboard, were fog bound in the harbor today waiting for visibility to improve before venturing to their piers. They were the Berengaria, Manchuria, Voltaire, Mexico, President Garfield and the American Shipper.

The fog descended upon the city yesterday afternoon and showed no signs of disappearing this forenoon.

Jail Sentences Imposed

Denton Bennett, arrested Tuesday by Officer Welch on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Bennett, charging her husband with disorderly conduct, was sentenced to thirty days in jail today by Judge Shufeldt in police court. Charles Wright, of Newton Hook, arrested on Perry street Tuesday by Officer Relfea, was sentenced to ten days in jail for public intoxication.

Two Women Hurt When Bus Skids On Flatbush Ave.

Glasco Bcs. With Twenty-nine Passengers, Skids on Key Roadway—Mrs. John Ferraro and Mrs. Carrie Grimaldi Injured—Bus Damaged.

Mrs. John Ferraro, 21, and Mrs. Carrie Grimaldi, 23, both of Glasco, were injured this morning about 7:30 o'clock when the Ferraro bus skidded on Flatbush avenue near Farrelly street, and the rear end of the bus crashed into the stone post at the entrance to St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Ferraro was cut on the cheek by flying glass and Mrs. Grimaldi was cut on the back of the head and complained of injuries to her back sustained when she fell out of the open door of the bus into the road.

At the time of the accident the bus, in charge of John Ferraro, husband of one of the injured women, was on the way into Kingston. There were twenty-nine passengers in the bus who are employed in the local factories. All of them reside in Glasco or vicinity.

Bus Begun to Skid

There is a slight turn in the road and at the top of the incline Ferraro said he slowed down to proceed down the incline. He had gotten part way down when the rear end of the bus began to skid and crashed into the stone pillar or post.

Mrs. Ferraro was sitting near one of the windows in the bus, and as the machine struck the stone post it shattered the window glass and the flying pieces of glass struck her in the side of the face, inflicting a nasty cut. The force of the impact between bus and post was such that the bus door swung open and Mrs. Grimaldi, who sat near the open door, fell out to the road.

The rear end of the bus was quite badly damaged, but was able to proceed later under its own power.

Women Receive Doctor's Care

The two injured women were taken into a nearby house and Ferraro called up Dr. John F. Larkin on the telephone. The doctor was busy with a patient at the time but sent out his car which conveyed the two women to his office, where he treated their wounds. Later they returned to their homes in Glasco.

Ferraro was running a double-header this morning in order to convey his patrons to Kingston, and the other bus, which followed the one that skidded, got safely past.

Ferraro later called at police headquarters where he filled out the report blanks of the accident.

WIEDEMANN BREWING CO. OFFICIALS SENTENCED

Covington, Ky., Feb. 8 (AP).—Pleas of guilty of violations of the federal prohibition act were entered in federal court today for the George Wiedemann Brewing Company of Newport, Ky., and five officials of the company. Sentences were passed immediately by Judge A. M. J. Cochran.

The George Wiedemann Company was fined $10,000. Charles Wiedemann, president of the company, was fined $10,000. Carl Wiedemann, vice president of the company and son of Charles Wiedemann, was fined $10,000 and sentenced to two years in federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

William Anschütz, office manager, was fined $5,000. George Delatour, brew master, was fined $2,500 and Charles Johannis, an employee, was fined $2,500.

The pleas of guilty came as a surprise shortly after court opened.

The case against Walter B. Wearer, secretary of the Wiedemann Company, probably will be dismissed because of a lack of evidence. United States Attorney Sawyer Smith said.

WOULD ERECT MONUMENT FOR FIELD MARSHAL HAIG

London, Feb. 8 (AP).—Premier Baldwin, in a glowing eulogy of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig in the House of Commons today, moved that the king be requested to order the erection of a public monument to the Field Marshal as an expression of the state's gratitude.

The place of a soldier or a statesman in history, said the prime minister, could not be decided by contemporaries and he must be contented with saying that Earl Haig was one of the great figures in the war and that his fame would continue to grow as the facts became known.

Files Suit For Divorce

Paris, Feb. 8 (AP).—Mrs. Grace Allen Ormsbee has filed suit for divorce from John Edward Ormsbee. They were married in Utica, N. Y., June 13, 1922.

Variety of Work For Aldermen

Sutton Sues City—Van Buren Wants Descriptive Pamphlet Published—Council on Record for Gas Tax—Mayor and Alderman Officially to Attend Conference at Albany.

A variety of matters came before the common council at its regular meeting at the Municipal Building Tuesday night. It had been expected that a delegation of women representing the different clubs affiliated with the Kingston Federation of Women's Clubs would attend the meeting, but the slippery walking probably was responsible for detaining them and all other visitors at home. All the aldermen were present and Mayor Dempsey also attended.

General bills against the city were read and referred to the auditing committee. That committee subsequently reported on other claims previously referred to it and its report was adopted.

Sutton Sues the City

City Clerk Moore read the summons in an action in the Supreme court brought against the city by Nathan K. Sutton to recover $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of water running over his land on Albany avenue. The matter was referred to the auditing committee and corporation counsel, Brinlier, Canfield & Elsworth are attorneys for Mr. Sutton.

Hendricks' Claim Rejected

The auditing committee reported on the claim of Clarence A. Hendricks for damages sustained by his automobile when it was run into by a fire truck on Broadway while the firemen were responding to an alarm on the night of January 13, that the committee had investigated the facts and recommended that the claim be rejected. The report was filed.

Appointments Filled

The appointment by Mayor Dempsey of W. Anderson Carl as a charity commissioner to succeed Ernest W. Kearney for the term ending December 31, 1930, was read and filed.

On Firemen's Committee

A communication was received from the Volunteer Firemen's Association requesting that a committee of three aldermen be appointed to meet with them in preparing for the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association convention in this city in June, such committee to take part in the meetings and to have the same rights as other committee members, the association having reserved a place for the aldermen on all committees.

Alderman-at-Large Everett said that since the common council had guaranteed certain obligations, it was proper that the council should be represented on the firemen's committee, and he appointed Aldermen Dressel, Mann and Burger to serve.

To Attend Mayors' Conference

A communication from the New York State Conference of Mayors and Other City Officials called attention to the mid-winter meeting at Albany on February 23, and asked that a representative of the governing body of the city be designated to attend, together with other officials. Three other conferences being held at Albany at the same time, the State Aviation Conference, meeting of city and village engineers and the meeting of the city, village and town assessors. Various matters which the State Legislature has under consideration affecting different municipalities will be considered.

On motion of Alderman Molyneux, Mayor Dempsey and Alderman O'Reilly were appointed to attend the conference as representatives of the city of Kingston, their expenses to be paid by the city.

A communication from Mrs. Philip DeGarmo acknowledged the resolutions adopted by the council upon the illness of her husband, expressing appreciation therefor in his behalf and stating that he would reply personally upon his recovery.

Van Buren Wants Pamphlet Printed.

A communication from Acting City Judge Augustus H. Van Buren stated that he and three contemplated establishing residence or business in this city require as a means of communication with the rest of the country, the schools, police and fire protection, water supply and health. He was informed that with the exception of the mayor's message to the common council, none of these department reports were published except in the official newspapers, and that persons seeking such information must consult the original reports or magazines from the newspapers. Tapes, he wrote, were entitled to have such information in such form as could be easily consulted, and he suggested that the last reports relating to the subjects named be published in pamphlet form, such pamphlet also to contain a brief historical sketch of the city and region, in whose preparation he would be glad to assist.

Probably enough pamphlets could be sold to pay for their cost. Anyway, it was a good way to advertise the city. The matter was referred to the finance, ways and means committee.

Council Favors Gas Tax

Alderman O'Reilly offered a resolution that the council is in favor of a gasoline tax, and that a copy of such

Don't Want Laws For Their Good

Enlightened Women Are In Reach Against Acts Done for Their Good, Says Woman Advocating Equal Rights—Women Abolish Such Laws.

Havana, Feb. 8 (AP).—Delegates to the Pan-American Congress today had before them a plea of the women of the Americas for equal rights.

The proposed equal rights treaty, drawn up by Miss Alice Paul, of the United States, was presented to a plenary session of the conference by Doris Stevens, chairman of the committee on international action of the Women's Party of United States. Miss Stevens, making the keynote speech, asserted:

"Enlightened women are in revolt against acts done for their good. We want no more laws written for our good and without our consent. We must have the right to direct our own destiny jointly with you."

She urged the delegates to make a treaty within the next five years establishing the principle of women's suffrage in all the American republics. She asked that women be allowed to consult with the conference and its sub-committee as colleagues, not auxiliaries.

"You might better act wisely and justly immediately on what you will have eventually to do," she continued. "Since the beginning of time men, with the best intentions no doubt, have been writing laws for our good, since the beginning of time brave and valiant women have been abolishing these same laws written for our good."

Half an hour before this plea, the conference approved a resolution calling upon the legislatures of American governments to pass special maternity legislation. The measure would provide obligatory full pay leaves for all women employees for a period of 40 days before and after confinement. Leaders of the women remarked that this was the type of legislation in the passage and discussion of which they wanted a part.

Hearings Here on 'Dry' Law Charges

United States Commissioner Arthur C. Connolly had before him at his office in The Cordus, adjoining the court house, Tuesday afternoon, Robert McGraw of 502 Warren street, Hudson, charged with violation of the Volstead law. He was arraigned on a charge of selling on February 1 to federal enforcement men two glasses of beer of higher power than the law fixes as a standard. The defendant was represented by Surrogate George F. Kaufman, his attorney, who objected to the proceedings there, as the prosecutor had failed to appear on Monday, the time set for the arraignment, while defendant at an expense came from Hudson in response to the request.

After a conference the matter was adjourned until March 7 at 2 o'clock. A temporary bond in $500 was given by Mr. McGraw for his appearance.

Joseph Zoch was arraigned on two charges of possession of liquor and was represented by Judge Augustus Shufeldt, his attorney. This was an adjourned case, the matter having come up a few weeks ago. Zoch is charged with possession at the Old Chatham House, in Columbia county and also a second charge of possession at a gasoline station a short distance from the hotel. The hearing was adjourned until March 8, at 2 p. m., a bond being given in $500 for his appearance then.

Jones Quits as State Architect

Albany, Feb. 8 (AP).—State Architect Sullivan W. Jones presented his resignation to Governor Smith today.

Mr. Jones retired from the state service, it was explained, because he did not wish to be a subordinate in the state department of public works. The office of state architect formerly was a separate division of the state government.

Mr. Jones walked into the governor's office this forenoon and tendered his resignation, asking that it be effective immediately. He told the governor that he had opposed the plan of governmental reorganization by which his office became a part of the department of public works.

Nearly a year ago he signified his intention of resigning, but at that time Governor Smith induced him to remain in office until the reorganization could be effected.

Under the law, Mr. Jones's successor will be named by the state superintendent of public works, Colonel Frederick Stuart Greene.

MISS ELMENDORF HURT IN FALL AT COUNTY BUILDING

Miss Nellie Elmendorf, secretary at the Ulster County Farm Bureau, was injured Tuesday afternoon when she fell down a flight of stairs in the county building on John street. Dr. E. H. Loughran was called and after an examination stated no bones were broken and Miss Elmendorf was later moved to her home. She sustained severe bruises about the face.

Accused of Firing Gun

State Trooper Russell Coons brought to the Ulster county jail Tuesday night John Hess, colored, to be held for a hearing on a charge of disorderly conduct in the town of Ulster. It is alleged that Hess in order to frighten people in general fired off a gun. He will be arraigned before a justice of the peace later.

Senate Teapot Dome Adjourns

Committee Hopes to Resume Hearings Next Week—Examine Three Witnesses Without Material Result.

Washington, Feb. 8 (AP).—Balked at nearly every turn in its effort to disclose the ultimate disposition of the profits of the short lived Continental Trading Company of Canada, the Senate Teapot Dome Committee adjourned its hearings today subject to the call of the chairman, after fruitless examination of three witnesses.

The committee hopes to resume hearings next week, and efforts in the meantime will be made to locate Wayne O'Neil, son of James E. O'Neil, who went to Europe after the oil scandal broke, and who now is listed as a missing witness in the oil cases.

Today the committee called on Earl W. Sinclair, brother of Harry F. Sinclair, Clark H. Kountz, vice president of the Pacific Pipe Line Company, and C. E. Crowley, vice president of the Sinclair Consolidated Company, for information about the bonds, but without material result.

Kountz went into the story of O'Neil's return of $800,000 of the bonds to the Pacific Oil and Gas Company, of which he was president, and told the committee the securities were in the hands of the oil man's son at one time.

To the vital question: "What, if anything, do you know about the bonds purchased by the Continental?" asked by Senator Walsh, Dem., Montana, the committee prosecutor, there was no positive answer.

These bonds, garnered by the Continental after it had engineered a deal to buy American oil for $1.50 a barrel and sell it back to American companies for $1.75, are alleged by the government to have figured in the lease of Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair, but the committee has so far failed to uncover what disposition was made of the entire lot. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, is facing contempt charges for refusing to testify on the subject.

GRAY WILL NOT ACCEPTED FOR PROBATE

White Plains, N. Y., Feb. 8 (AP).—A copy of the will of Henry Judd Gray, recently electrocuted with Mrs. Ruth Snyder for the murder of her husband, was received through the mail by Surrogate Slater today but was not accepted for probate.

The reasons for this were that the document gave two "residences," one of them being Sing Sing prison, and that it was a copy and not the original as the law required. It was said at the surrogate's office that the double entry under residence might make the will illegal.

The copy was merely held pending the next move to Samuel L. Miller, Gray's attorney, who was not in his New York office when the copy arrived.

A touch of mystery was contained in the will in that it made a bequest of $1,260 to Miller to establish a trust, "the nature of which he will know."

Other bequests in the copy of the will were $1,000 to Mrs. Isabelle Gray, described as "my beloved wife," and whose address was given as Norwalk, Conn. After Gray was convicted his wife moved from Jersey to stay with relatives in Connecticut.

A like sum was left to Gray's mother, Mrs. Margaret Gray of West Orange, $250 and a diamond pin to his daughter, Jane, and $250 each to his sister, Mrs. Margaret Logan and her husband, Harold, of West Orange. These and the one to Miller were the only bequests.

PLACES BLAME ON PITTSBURGH COAL COMPANY

Washington, Feb. 8 (AP).—Declaring that "police in the employ of coal companies" were terrorizing and assaulting the striking coal miners of western Pennsylvania, Representative Casey, Democrat, Pennsylvania, in a speech today in the house, laid chief responsibility upon the Pittsburgh Coal Company.

Speaking in support of his resolution seeking a congressional investigation of conditions in the coal industry, Casey said the police are commissioned by the state but are hired and paid by the coal companies who direct their activities. He charged that the police "are carrying out a vicious campaign for the destruction of the United Mine Workers of America and lowering of wages of the miners."

ROCKEFELLER DIRECTED STEWART TO APPEAR

Washington, Feb. 8 (AP).—Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, appeared before the Senate Teapot Dome committee by direction of John H. Rockefeller, Jr., it was disclosed today in correspondence made public by the committee.

Accused of Firing Gun.

State Trooper Russell Coons brought to the Ulster county jail Tuesday night John Hess, colored, to be held for a hearing on a charge of disorderly conduct in the town of Ulster. It is alleged that Hess in order to frighten people in general fired off a gun. He will be arraigned before a justice of the peace later.

Henry—I've just seen the world's greatest optimist!

George—who is he?

Henry—a fellow out room-hunting with a telephone under his arm.

Turner's name is pronounced the same as funny. It also sounds like money.

Smiles.

Faces were built for smiles, not tears. Why even nature herself talks at times, shows her utter disapproval. She leaves familiar and beautiful evidence to that the world may see, and thus, smiling, when difficulty and discomfort.

Even gloom and frowns, old school fellows to tears, are heartily condemned. Nature imprints a furrow for the frown, and a drooping mouth for the expression of perpetual gloom.

But a smile, the most it leaves, is little laughter wrinkles, which aren't really wrinkles at all, only ennobling wrinkles that have learned the trick of catching the sun. Every body likes sunshine. Count the number of pedestrians on a cloudy day; count the number when it's sunny.

And while you have no direct control over the elements of wind, rain and clouds, yet man isn't as helpless as he would have himself believe. He can smile.

And smiles are man-made sunshine.

From the murderer's standpoint even "occasional insanity" is better than none.

Nakedness in the chorus really is vulgar. That in the audience is shielded by semi-darkness.

"Pa, will you buy me a pair of boots if I prove to you that a dog has ten tails?"

"Yes, my son."

"Well to begin with, one dog has one more tail than no dog, hasn't he?"

"Yes."

"Well, no dog has nine tails; and if one dog has one more tail than no dog, then one dog must have ten tails."

He got the boots.

The male may be superior, but he can't drop three ounces of fabric over his head and call himself dressed.

"This is a grave situation," he said, as he stumbled over a tombstone.

Ineffective Reason

There are those who never reason on what they should do, but on what they have done; as if reason had her eyes behind, and could only see backward.—Henry Fielding.

How Come?

If an efficiency expert can show a pickle manufacturer how to make his business double its earnings, then why doesn't he go into that line himself?

Judgment in $419 has been entered by the Ulster county clerk

Frank J. Shiels, it being stipulated that as alimony he pay $12.50 each week for education of the two children of the marriage who were then into custody of the wife. Having defaulted in $419, the judgment was ordered against him. Cleon B.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Feb. 8 (AP)—Sharp reactions took place in many stocks during the early part of today's stock market, but a recovery set in during the afternoon as pools resumed operations in some of the recent favorites. Passing of the American Sugar Refining dividend was followed by a break of 1 1/2 points in that stock but it failed to halt the recovery which was under way when the announcement was made. Trading turned dull on the rally.

The weekly steel trade reviews reported further improvement in the trade position, and Wall Street looks for an increase of more than 300,000 tons in the January unaffiliated orders of the United States Steel Corporation which will be made public on Friday.

Montgomery Ward continued its seasonal advance by soaring nearly six points to another new high record at 147 1/2. Consolidated Gas jumped more than 4 points to a new top at 124 1/2. U. S. Industrial Alcohol crossed 112 to the highest price in seven years. Coppers moved forward under the leadership of Kennecott.

Freeport, Green Cananea and Vandenberg Steel all rallied 3 to 4 points from their earlier low levels.
U. S. Steel common and General Motors also were prominent in the afternoon recovery.

Elroy & Co., members N. Y. Stock

Final Stages of Hickman Trial

Los Angeles, Feb. 8 (AP)—With a quick time march of final witnesses, the sanity trial of William Edward Hickman today moved into its final stages.

Attorneys for both sides predicted the last of the evidence for and against the youth's insanity plea to be the kidnapping and murder of 12-year-old Marian Parker would be placed before the jury before the end of today's session.

With the opening of the final stages it was disclosed that virtually none of the principals in the trial drama had escaped the attentions of writers of "sensational" letters.

The most massive was to the jury itself. It threatened to "show the whole bunch up" if Hickman was not held "responsible" for the school girl's murder.

The last of the state's seven alienists, one of whom have declared Hickman sane, completed their testimony yesterday.

During the cross-examination of Dr. Thomas J. Orison, one of the expert witnesses, the defense managed to slip into the records Hick-man's "closing argument" prepared by the young lawyer in his cell for delivery at his trial. The admission of a copy of that oration, titled by its young author "Sensation of Crime," and been barred previously on a prosecution objection that it was "tendency" evidence.

The Hickman document was dismissed by other state alienists as the plea of a man at "the end of his rope."

Dr. Orison was asked to examine it to determine whether it contained any evidence of insanity. The alienist labeled it "merely a sophomoric essay on crime."

Dr. Edward H. Williams, the last of the prosecution alienists to testify, declared that Hickman was "obviously feigning insanity" and making a "bum exhibition of it."

Welby Hunt, Hickman's confessed accomplice in a boldup attempt that resulted in the death of C. Ivy Thomas, a druggist, testified: "I think Hickman was sane, to all my knowledge."

State and Defense Rest.

After a brief and dramatic appearance on the witness stand of Perry M. Parker, father of the slain Marian Parker, both state and defense rested their cases today in the sanity trial of William Edward Hickman.

Final arguments in the trial were scheduled to begin at 2 p. m.

Judge J. J. Trabucco announced that by agreement of counsel each side would be limited to three hours for argument with the state opening and closing.

The taking of testimony ended in a rush of suspense thrown over the courtroom as Parker took the stand.
One long hard stare was directed by the grief-stricken father upon the slayer of his child.

Hickman, slumped and motionless in his chair, looked down at the counsel table before him.

Parker identified letters and telegrams he received from the kidnaper, the bills he paid as ransom to the defendant, and identified Hickman in the words "he was the man who took the money."

Third Term Issue Before the Senate

Washington, Feb. 8 (AP)—The third term issue, with particular reference to President Coolidge, stood fairfooted on the senate floor today, demanding attention and inspiring political crystal-gazing encompassing both present and future.

Described by some Republicans soothsayers as the "third term bug-boo" the question held the right of way beginning at 2 o'clock in the form of a resolution by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wis., declaring that departure from the "precedent established by Washington and other presidents" of retiring after the second term would be "draught with peril to our free institutions."

Brought unexpectedly before the senate with Senator LaFollette's statement that he wanted the resolution adopted because an effort is being made to "draft" President Coolidge, it was opposed today by a counter resolution that would side-track it to the judiciary committee.

A vote on that resolution, by Senator Bingham, Republican, Conn., was set for 2 o'clock and was calculated to bring to light the division of senators that may be expected on the LaFollette proposal itself.

Senator Bingham was one of the administration champions who led the fight against the resolution, which would put the senate on record as commending "observance of this precedent by the President."

He was joined by Senator Foss, Republican, Ohio, in declaring that the resolution, if given the force of law, would make it "impossible or difficult" for the Republican party to re-elect Mr. Coolidge this year or in 1932.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason E. Carle entertained sixteen guests at a dinner and bridge party Thursday evening.
It was the third one held by Mr. and Mrs. Carle.

Katrine Grange Hall, Wednesday evening, February 1, when over 150 friends of Miss Wallace gathered and surprised her with a miscellaneous shower of presents of every description. Music was furnished by the Lake Katrine orchestra and the host of friends enjoyed the dancing until midnight. Refreshments were served by a special committee of friends of Miss Wallace. The party was a complete surprise as Miss Wallace was invited to attend a basketball game at the Grange Hall.

Table led by Mrs. Chidester, who spoke on Morgenstern; Mrs. Cole on Riis; Miss Brown on Steiner; and Miss M. H. Baker on Bok. There seemed to be much interest in the coming performance of Julius Caesar by the Stratford Players at the high school auditorium next Tuesday evening. Next week the Lowell Club will meet with Mrs. V. B. Van Wagonen.

How Science Proved Brunettes Beat Blondes in Most Unique Love Test

HERE ARE TWO of the scenes and the chart of the "Love Meter" test recently conducted by Dr. William M. Marston, Columbia University psychologist, in New York, with blonde Rose Gallagher and brunette Polly O'Day, two "Tollies" beauties, as subjects.

The recordings were made as the two girls watched the presentation of two photoplays of modern love in which Greta Garbo and John Gilbert warmed things up considerably.

The instruments, recording blood pressure and respiration, were taxed to the utmost to trace the emotional reaction to such sequences of love as depicted above. The tracings on the chart show how the blonde and brunette responded.

The key to the chart is as follows:

A, normal respiration as picture begins; B, lovers meet in garden;
C, they kiss wildly; D, love scene in room; E, hero departs suddenly;
F, they meet again in a close-up;
G, she kisses her lover; H, they lie with faces together; I, the end.

The tests were continued with other blondes and brunettes linked together and in each case, according to the professor, the dark-haired ones showed much greater emotional activity while watching the Garbo-Gilbert "climaxes."

Records have shown that brunettes simultaneously are as Mendelssohn of Vienna, who plays out pieces while you wait. It is not stated that she has a love waiting for him.

The Mendelssohn man who sought diverse changes in the love-making with his typewriter in the room. The conversation was not so much between the lovers as it was between her cook and the maid.

It is estimated that within three months after the arrival of the millions of soldiers to fill them up with their own sense of a reason for an unpleasant to the dinner.

When Hodge Was Stranded Here

Versatile Head of Theatrical Company Was Unable to Get Away—Stays in Liscomb's Opera House—Funeral Procession Gave Him Inspiration.

There are many tales of theatrical companies that became stranded and of how the actors and actresses gave up their profession for other gainful employment, but there seems to be only one theatrical tale with the city of Kingston as the center in which the company became stranded but the leading man, after sleeping in Liscomb's Opera House, the site of the present Orpheum Theatre, gained inspiration for continuing his career by watching a funeral procession.

The story revolves around William Hodge, a well known actor who recently has been playing at Hartford, Conn., in his mystery comedy, "Straight Through the Door."

The Hartford Daily Courant, telling the story, says that Hodge encountered some real "rough sledding" while serving his novitiate in the theatre. In fact, it was so rough that he almost determined to give up his ambition to become an actor. But a little episode in his darkest hour of despair changed his course.

In his early theatrical life, says The Courant, Mr. Hodge was a member of a repertoire company playing small towns in New York state. He played every kind of part known to the catalogue of those organizations, and also developed a talent for stage dancing and singing comic Irish songs. Young Hodge acquired quite a reputation as a waltz-clogger when that dance was all the rage.

Stranded in Rondout.

Rondout, N. Y., however, witnessed the last performance of that company, for they stranded there high and dry without funds. Every member of the "troupe" except a man and his wife and two young men managed to make their way back to New York city. The versatile Hodge was one of the quartet of thespians who could not move.

The financial resources of the now famous star were nil. He slept on a sofa in a room in the Liscomb Opera House, and the manager provided him with food while the young actor scanned a borrowed theatrical paper looking for work. His letters to New York managers were carried by postage supplied by his fellow stranded players. Day after day the troubled Hodge walked the streets of Rondout planning, hoping, waiting until the manager of the theatre finally intimated that the town authorities had about decided to apprehend him as a vagrant.

Beheld Funeral Procession.

In his despair young Hodge now considered abandoning his ambition to shine in the glow of the footlights and was beginning to think of returning to the home from which he ran away. With this decision to be made he wandered out into the country and sat down by the roadside with his elbows on his knees and his face buried in his hands. Presently he heard the sound of horses' hoofs on the dirt road, but he did not even look up. The sound of the hoofs grew nearer and there seemed to be an endless number passing. Curiosity compelled him to glance up. He beheld a long funeral procession going by.

And here one might fancy was a sight to plunge him into deeper depression. It might have been the first blow. He wasn't depressed. His discouragement took wings. It was like a mental slap on the back.

"Here I am," he said to himself, "a healthy young man without an ache in my body and life before me. What wouldn't that poor fellow in the hearse give to be in my place."

Success Follows Optimism.

He took a changed mood back to the town—a mood full of optimism and courage. Corraling the stranded players he outlined a plan that would relieve their common financial embarrassment.

Several nights later in a rented hall in East Rondout, Mr. Hodge and his fellow thespians offered a condensed version of "Kathleen Mavourneen" interspersed with singing and dancing specialties. At an admission charge of ten and twenty cents the evening netted them $25. The proprietor of the hall refused to deduct the $3 rental charge. In a nearby town the performance was repeated with equal success. The spell of bad luck was broken and William Hodge remained upon the stage to achieve national recognition and great popularity.

DUCK HUNTERS OBEYED LAW.

Remarkably Few Violations Reported From Long Island.

Albany, Feb. 8.—According to reports received by the Conservation Department from Inspector Claude Hanlon in charge of the Metropolitan division, there were fewer violations of the conservation law by Long Island duck hunters than usual. He says: "I am gratified to report that the waterfowl hunters observed the laws very strictly this year, and we had but few violations of this nature. In fact we have had practically no reports of any shooting of ducks after sunset or fire-lighting game. Also we have had very little trouble with the deer hunters on Long Island this winter. We had a few reports and made a few arrests for the illegal taking of deer but it has not been nearly as large as in former years. This, I believe, is the result of a better understanding on the part of hunters of the need for obeying the conservation law."

Similar conditions are reported by Inspector Johnston, whose district comprises the counties of Schenectady, Albany, Rensselaer, Columbia and Greene. He reports: "Out of 4,385 hunters examined by the protectors in this division there were found, evidence of remarkably few violations. Protectors Vickers, Freer, Seide and Meyers had a number of prosecutions for illegal use of ferrets and a party of New York hunters paid fifty dollars each for having shot hen pheasants."

SMALL LOSS ON TREES.

If They Are Planted Properly, Writes Warren County Man.

Albany, Feb. 8.—That the principal thing necessary to insure the success of young forest plantations is care in the planting of them, was stated in a report just received by Conservation Commissioner Alexander Macdonald, from Harry Richards of Johnsburg, Warren county, who has made seven plantations, all of which were successful.

In 1910 Mr. Richards planted 500 white pine and 1,000 Scotch pine; in 1911, 1,000 white pine and 500 Scotch pine; in 1912, 1,000 white pine and 1,000 Scotch pine and in 1914, 1,000 white pine.

In his report to the department Mr. Richards says of these plantations: "They have done fine and very few have died. They are from 25 to 30 feet tall and some are seven inches at the butt. Many of them grew too fast in one year. You cannot find any poorer piece of land than where my pines are set, but pine will grow anywhere in this part of the country, in the swamps, in the hills, or on the mountains. I think the reason that some people lose trees when first planted is because they don't take pains enough in setting them out. If a good job is done planting them I don't believe there will be many trees die."

Two Industrial Games.

Freeman Social Club Banquet

The Freeman Social Club held its eleventh annual banquet at McManis restaurant Tuesday evening, over fifty members of the club attending the annual event.

Following the very delicious menu, which brought expressions of praise from the banqueters, there was some socializing and a wealth of singing. Under the leadership of Paul Zuercher the latest song hits and some of the songs popular in yesteryear were rendered. A few of the talented members played the pathos with solos. Speeches for the different departments of The Freeman Publishing Company have short talks which were of great interest to the members of the club.

The following menu was served:

Relishes. Queen Olives.
Cocktail. Sea Cross Oyster.
Soup. Home-made Chicken.
Roast Young Vermont Turkey.
Cranberry Sauce.
Mashed Potatoes. Mashed Turnips.
Fruit Salad.
Ice Cream. Coffee. Petit-Fours.
Cigars.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Charles Hackett, leading tenor of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, will broadcast the concert in the Atwater Kent Hour Sunday night, February 12, assisted by Nanette Guilford of the Metropolitan Opera, and the Atwater Kent Orchestra under the leadership of Robert Hood Bowers.

The eighth and last of this season's Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra concerts will be broadcast Thursday afternoon, February 9, at 2:10 o'clock by WGY. The orchestra, conducted as usual by Eugene Goossens will play a program of music representing a variety of schools, music in which there is something for all tastes. The symphony chosen for this concert is "Haydn's Surprise" in G Major, popularly known as "The Surprise Symphony". Also on the program are Weber's delightful "Oberon" Overture; Debussy's "Pavane"; Suite for Orchestra by Krumpholtz; and Liszt's A major piano concerto with Max Landow as guest soloist.

NECTARINES FOR NEW YORK.

Peaches Without Fuzz—Offer Promising New Variety.

Peaches without fuzz are known as nectarines to the fruit growers and are much more in demand in Europe and on the Pacific Coast than in the East. This neglect of a very attractive fruit is due to the scarcity of good varieties adapted to eastern conditions. declare the horticulturists at the Experiment Station at Geneva where an effort is being made to develop superior varieties of nectarines.

One new variety, the Hunter, is being recommended by the Station fruit men as well worth a trial in New York. Planting stocks are now available at cost from the New York Fruit Testing Association which cooperates with the Station in the propagation and distribution of the new fruit varieties originated or recommended by the Station fruit specialists.

"Nectarines are little grown in New York chiefly because the curculio finds the smooth-skinned fruit quite to its taste and usually plays havoc with the crop," says Dr. U. P. Hedrick, Station horticulturist. "But the curculio is easily controlled by spraying, and does not prove a serious obstacle to the growing of nectarines in this state."

"While there are probably two hundred varieties of peaches available to New York growers, there are not more than four nectarines worth trying. These are Boston, Elruge, Newton and Victoria. It seemed imperative, therefore, that the Station attempt to develop better varieties of nectarines."

"The Hunter is the first of the new sorts to be offered fruit growers. The tree is large, vigorous, hardy, and productive. The fruits are large, handsomely colored, and of good quality. Hunter is easily the best midseason nectarine growing on the Station grounds."

At the business meeting following the dinner President J. Hartley Tanner reviewed some of the activities during the past year. A piano has been secured, a stage built and equipped with curtain and scenery (curtains were presented by the young people of the church). Music was furnished for the dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Tanner and Howard Anderson—violin, saxophone and piano. H. M. Epps led chorus singing and kept the company in good humor. As a closing feature of the evening, the ladies of the Home Bureau under the direction of Mrs. Epps reproduced the play entitled, "Joint Owners in Spain."

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)
Injon, France—Madame Melene, 82-year-old, who is in her 19th year, never has had a ride in a train, let alone an automobile or a plane.

Chicago—News has come of the death in Arizona at 82 years of Miss Celeste J. Miller, ex-Chicagoan, who circled the world 33 times alone, at times riding on camels and elephants.

New York—Having devoted in years gone by some of his meagre funds to the care of a horse that lived to be 55 years old, the Rev. Uriah Myers, 90, of Catawissa, Pa., is in need. Friends have called the attention of the Lutheran board of ministerial pensions and relief to his case. When he and his wife and the race horse Clover were living on his pension of $25 a month in 1922, horse lovers provided a pension of the same amount for the horse till its death.

Des Moines—A husband moved to wrath by a wife's bob may not chastise her. The state supreme court so held in confirming a divorce granted to Mrs. Nona Harden O'Brien, farmer's wife.

New York—Uncle Sam is willing to pay Jimmy Walker one dollar a day and found. The army recruiting service has given the mayor a certificate attesting his fitness for enlistment.

Quibee—A minimum wage for men as well as women is favored by William Tremblay, member of the legislature. In debate another speaker suggested he was preaching Bolshevism.

Lenigrad—Soviet telephone booths are to reject Charist coins automatically, also anything else but what is supposed to be dropped in. Inventors have devised something or other.

New York—Jaime Del Rio, wealthy ranch owner, who loves his wife, Dolores Del Rio of the movies and Hollywood, says he is glad to be in New York because in Hollywood it was his curse to be simply the husband of a star. He's sold a play here and is writing a book on the underworld.

ELECTROCUTION AND FRACTURE CAUSED DEATH.

Electrocution and a fractured skull were the causes of the death of David A. Smith of Poughkeepsie, who came in contact with the Poughkeepsie-Millbrook power line between the Van Wagner and Salt Point roads Sunday morning, according to a verdict reached by Coroner Card of Poughkeepsie. No hemorrhage followed the fractured skull. Coroner Card found, the fracture being a contributory cause. Coroner Card determined that the current Smith came in contact with was sufficient to cause his death. Elmer Van Voorhis, who was working with Smith, kicked loose his feet and tried to pry his fingers from the live wire. Both fell 30 feet to the ground, the fall contributing to Smith's death and causing slight injuries to Van Voorhis, who sought futilely to save his companion. Coroner Card will conduct an inquest into Smith's death soon.

Rapid Rise of Betty Nuthall

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD Betty Nuthall, Helen Wills' foremost rival, ranks as the second best woman tennis player in England in the list compiled for 1927 by Hamilton Price, referee and a recognized authority on the subject. Mrs. Betty McKinnon Godfree, Betty's little veteran of international play, was given her usual top ranking. The sudden rise of the youthful Miss Nuthall to a place among the world's great players was reflected in her advance from eleventh to second in a single year. Miss Nuthall's showing in winning the hard court championship of Great Britain and finishing as runner-up to Miss Wills in the United States title event last fall was more spectacular, but Mrs. Godfree still was adjudged slightly the better player. She was handicapped by illness while in America.
Mrs. Price's "first dozen": Mrs. Godfree, Miss Nuthall, Miss Joan Fry, Mrs. M. Watson, Miss P. Saunders, Miss Eileen Bennett, Mrs. E. C. Correll, Miss E. M. Harvey, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. McQuham, Miss J. C. Ridley and Miss G. Sterry.
Miss Sterry received a place on the recent list largely because she succeeded in winning a set from Miss Wills at Wimbledon. Six of the other twelve players named in Price's list, including Mrs. Godfree, captain, and Miss Nuthall, were members of the English Wightman cup team which lost in a match with an American team headed by Miss Wills at Forest Hills, N. Y., last summer.

Sport Notes

Princeton has 17 all-year coaches.
Brooklyn, it is understood, will train at Atlanta, Ga., in 1929.
Lou Gehrig hit two home runs during the 1927 season with the bases fully occupied.
Gar Wood, famous speedboat driver, plans to build a boat capable of making 90 miles an hour.
Young men are said to excel at chess. That may be true, but so few of them ever go in for it.
Gene Tunney says if you work hard enough and try hard enough you can do anything you want to do.
"Rusty" Callow, new rowing coach at Penn., is extremely satisfied with rowing candidates at his school.
All regular members of the University of Vermont basketball squad this season are more than six feet tall.
Some scientist says you can't live more than four weeks without sleep. That's why we limit bicycle grinds to six days.
Lionel Conacher, the "Big Train" of the New York American hockey team, is probably the best all-around athlete Canada has ever produced.
The two boxers had already clinched through five rounds. "What is it," asked a voice from the 42 seats, "one of those companionate things?"
An attack of tonsillitis will keep Johnny Gibson, one of the best middle-distance runners in the world, from taking part in any winter meets.
Every season since he joined the Brooklyn in the spring of 1922, Dazzy Vance has fanned more batters than any other National league pitcher.
The New York Yankees announce the outright release of Joe Giard, pitcher, and infielder Ray Morehart to St. Paul American Association club.
Bobby Jones and Walter Hagen, two of the greatest golfers of all time, have only a single hole-in-one apiece and each came after many years of play.
Johnny Milder, former Denver football star, will try to land a berth as a pitcher with Connie Mack this spring. He tried the same stunt last year.
Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, announces that Carl Husta, third baseman, had been sent to the Toledo club, American association.
There will be no change in the management of the American association Saints next season, the club has announced. Nick Allen being retained for another year.
Johnny Wills and "Lefty" Sennett, members of the Parkside club in the Greater Baltimore Soccer league, have been playing side by side since both were about ten years old.
Bill Bradley, former third baseman for the Cleveland Indians, has been engaged to scout college teams for the tribe. General Manager Billy Evans announced recently.

Golf Play at Night Now Seems to Be Feasible

The golf fiend whose chief regret in life is that he cannot crowd enough daylight hours into his time on the links, may derive some solace in the claim of Millard J. Bloomer, a golf enthusiast and managing director of the American Airways corporation, that he has invented an illuminated golf ball that makes playing at night not only practicable, but a pleasure. Bloomer put his invention to a practical demonstration recently on the Moshulu course in damp weather and played eight balls on the first and eighteenth holes. All were recorded from the drives and played out to the cup in darkness. Millard explained that the balls are treated with a chemical and wrapped in tinfoil until used. The illumination lasts for approximately fifteen minutes after the balls are removed from the foil.

Athlete of 1927

The Amateur Athletic union has submitted its suggestions for a resume of 1927's progress and outstanding events of the track and field. Sabin Carr of Yale was chosen as the outstanding athlete of the year. Carr started breaking records in February, and kept the world best mark for the pole vault, steadily mounting until he finally cleared 13 feet 9 1/4 inches indoors and 14 feet outdoors.

Yankees Refuse $30,000 for Young Star Hurler

The New York Yankees have turned down an offer of $30,000 for Henry Johnson, twenty-one-year-old pitcher. Surprisingly enough, the offer was made by a minor league club—Milwaukee, of the American association. "I told H. W. Killian, the new owner of the Milwaukee club, that if Johnson was worth $30,000 to him he was worth a fortune to us," said Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the Yankees. If the deal had been completed, it would have constituted a record price for the purchase of a major league player by a minor league club. Johnson was with Milwaukee on option last year and was recalled by the Yankees at the close of the American association season. The Yankees also have bagged Shealy from St. Paul, and Bob Conary declares they have acquired the two best A. A. twirlers of 1927.

Gene Tunney Is Lauded as Finest in the Ring

Gene Tunney, world heavyweight champion, is regarded as the most valuable man in fistiana in 1927, in a declaration by William Muldoon, senior members of the New York state athletic commission. Lauding Tunney's boxing activities, Muldoon said: "He is the finest representative the game has ever had in the heavy-weight division. I base this opinion not only on his reputation as a clean, hard fighter in the ring, but also on his high standard of personal habits and conduct outside the ring." Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia ranked next to Tunney in Muldoon's estimation of pugilistic rating.

More Bouts at Armory Feb. 24

The next card of armory bouts will be put on here Friday, February 24. According to those now under consideration it will be the best card of the season on which will be the names of prominent fighters who go big time performing in New York city.

Larry Edgerton, famous colored light-heavyweight boxer, according to tentative plans will appear in the squared circle against Frankie Kozminski. The latter has appeared in the armory on several occasions and is popular with local fans. He is a clean fighter with a dynamite wallop. Edgerton is classed among the scrappiest of high calibre and will give the fans an exhibition of some real high powered action if matched with Kozminski.

Al DeSilva, who put away Ruby Jackson Monday night after one minute and 45 seconds in the first round, will probably do battle with Kid Rash, famous colored champion of the 360th Infantry. DeSilva is in the limelight of New York pugilism at present. Kid Rash has had 27 years experience in the squared circle and has speed and hitting power combined.

"Red" Edgerton will be on the card. An opponent has not been named for him yet but a hard man will be dug. "Red" is a man whom the Kingston fans like to see in action because he is capable of furnishing a flashy exhibition. He is one of the cleverest boxers yet to step into a ring here.

Joe Myers will probably be on the card against a good opponent. Joe is a local scrapper and is anxious to overcome the defeat registered here against him by Tommy Gans several weeks ago. Myers will likely train hard for the next show in order to do a preliminary on the card that is to be the best yet staged in the armory.

FATHERLY ADVICE FOR ROSENBERG AND GRAM.

New York, Feb. 8 (AP).—Charles Phil Rosenberg, former bantamweight champion of the world, and Babe Graham of Tulsa, have been ordered to appear before the New York Boxing Commission at next Tuesday's meeting to have suspensions against them formally lifted. Rosenberg and Graham drew the ban of the commission last February 15 and the year's penalty imposed in the longest suspension on record here. While the reinstatement ordinarily would be automatic, the boxing authorities desire to impart some fatherly advice as to the conduct of the pair in the future. The boys were accused of negotiating separate contracts for a bout. It is understood Rosenberg intends to resume his ring activities as a featherweight.

COMMISSION SUSPENDS REFEREE DAVE BARRY.

Chicago, Feb. 8 (AP).—Dave Barry, who counted nine over Gene Tunney last September and won a name for himself, has been suspended indefinitely by the state boxing commission. Barry's license was revoked on the ground that he refereed an unlicensed boxing match a week ago. The absence of Barry from the ring will deprive fans of the opportunity of seeing him for the count in the Dempsey-Tunney fight. At all boxing shows in which Barry has refereed since last September it has been the practice of fans to start a union count between rounds, going from 1 to 14. It was Dempsey's contention that Tunney was on the canvas 14 seconds.

Senior Sunday School Games. Tonight, starting at 8 o'clock, there will be three Senior Sunday School League basketball games at the Y. M. C. A. The opponents will be as follows: Presbyterians vs. Congregationalists, Comforters vs. Deacons and Port Ewen vs. Trinity. The games are becoming more interesting as the season ages and it is expected that the usual gathering of fans will be increased for tonight's games.

Joe Rocco, 125, 22d Engineers, defeated Johnny Huber, 125, 212th Anti-Aircraft, in the feature ten-round bout at the 22d Engineers' Armory last evening. Rocco won six of the rounds, although Huber knocked him down in the tenth. In another fast ten-rounder, Jimmy Doyle, 122, 166th Infantry, defeated Frank Houlihan, 125, 22d Engineers.

Sport Activities For Coming Year

New York, Feb. 8 (AP).—The winter's track activities make it increasingly clear that Lloyd Hahn is the only American capable of breaking this country's flax in the Olympic middle distance championships this summer.

Unless Joe Kay stages a successful comeback, Hahn appears likely to be the only first class miler Uncle Sam will have available for the trip to Amsterdam. Three years ago Hahn, Kay, Conolly and others all were doing their miles at around 4:15 and occasionally in better time. Kay did 4:12, the present indoor record, and Hahn 4:12.5 in one race.

But of this group only Hahn has improved. There isn't much room for improvement when a miler gets inside of 4:15 but the rugged Boston A. A. star stepped his best mile last season in 4:12.5. He will make his main bid for a record this winter in the Knights of Columbus games here February 19.

Hahn has made a show of all his rivals so far, including Ray Conger, the national mile champion, and the best of the middle distance crop from the east and middle west. He has won eight straight races and should hang up his ninth victory in the A. C. games tonight. Only at the half mile is Hahn up against much opposition. Over that route Phil Edwards, the fleet New York University negro star, is capable of pushing Lloyd but that is about all.

Walter Oakeson will be the eastern "Judge Landis" next fall, exercising car-like powers in selecting gridiron officials for most of the leading colleges of this sector.

Having experimented with the system last year and found it satisfactory the group of a dozen institutions have opened the doors and invited the rest of the college fold to sail under Oakeson's banner. The others haven't much choice now that the old Central Board on officials has been disbanded.

It is one of the most important steps in eastern football organization in many years and gives the district a centralized authority on officials, rules and other routine comparative to that possessed by the

My condensation in other parts of the country.

Babe Ruth is physically from five to ten years younger now than he was two years ago, before his big comeback, in the opinion of his trainer, Artie McGovern.

The Babe's waistline and general dimensions are much more symmetrical than they were in 1925. McGovern's tape measure revealed when the big fellow returned to gymnasium work on his thirty-fourth birthday yesterday.

Here's how the measurements compare:

	1924	1925
Weight	220	225 1/2
Neck	16 1/2	16
Chest	41	40
Chest exp.	45"	47"
Waist	42	39
Hips	42	40
Thigh	25 1/2	23
Calf	15 1/2	14 1/2
Biceps	14 1/2	13 1/2
Forearm	12	10 1/2

To make the shift in picture complete for 1928 it is necessary now only for Ty Cobb to bob up in a new uniform—the Giants, as a suggestion.

Any fan who performed a Rip Van Winkle stunt after last spring's opening would hardly believe he was awake if he opened his eyes and noticed Hornsby with the Braves, Speaker with the Athletics, Sisler with Washington, Manush with the Browns and Walter Johnson with the Newark Internationals.

ROAMERS LOST TO ROXBOROY SCHOOL QUINSET.

The Roamer basketball quintet of this city lost to the Roxboro Edgerton School at Highland Monday night, 52-25. The winners rolled up a 26-7 point lead in the first half of the contest and held away throughout the second session. Raible and Boyce did the best scoring for the Kingston team by procuring nine points each. Brown, of the winners with 12 markers led the scoring field. The defeat was the third consecutive one for the Roamers. They will try to break into the winning column Saturday night when they take on the Young Judasians at Epworth Hall.

SCHOOL PUPILS SAVED MORE THAN A MILLION

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 8 (AP).—Rochester school children have deposited more than a million dollars in a local savings bank since the establishment of the school banking system here 12 years ago. The deposits now run from $5,000 to $7,000 weekly from the 16,000 children participating.

James Gray, who as a grade school pupil was one of the depositors of the bank in October, 1915, and who is now director of school savings for the bank, believes that by saving children learn to spend wisely.

Among the reasons for withdrawal given by depositors were: Financing college educations, starting a business, special training and travel.

Sleep is necessary to man, but fatal to business.

Track Notables At Newark Meet

Newark, N. J., Feb. 8 (AP).—Headed by many track notables of the east, including Lloyd Hahn of the Boston A. A., Phil Edwards of New York U., and Chet Bowman, the eighth annual indoor games of the Newark Athletic Club will be held in the 113th Regiment Armory here tonight.

Hahn will start from scratch with Edwards in a 1,000 yard event which will be the Boston runner's first handicap race this season. Bowman, Newark A. C. flyer, will make his initial appearance since last July when he equaled the world's 100 yard dash record in capturing the national championship at Nebraska.

Along with such stars as Bob McAllister of the Knights of Columbus, Francis Huesey of the New York A. C. and Jimmy Pappas of Princeton, Bowman will compete in a series of sprints at 50, 60 and 70 yards. The Newark 500 yard special will bring together George Lencosa of the New York A. C., national 600 yard champion and recent winner of the Millrose 600 and the Keith 600. Oliver Podouck, Joe Tierney, Vincent Lally and possibly Johnny Gibney, Leo Lermont, Boston A. A. entry, and Eddie Kirby of the Newark A. C., will clash again in a two mile handicap. Harold Osborn is entered in a high jump handicap along with Gail Robinson, Metropolitan indoor champion.

Apparently the petticoat has gone to join the bustle and the hoop-skirt.

Honors Await French Fliers

Costs and Lebrun, French Aviators, Hop Off for Washington—Official Welcoming Party Plan Reception at the Field.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 2 (AP).—The French aviators, Georges Costes and Yves Lebrun, French Ambassadors of the air, departed from Maxwell Field for Washington at 2:15 today. They were accompanied by the military band.

The Frenchmen said they hoped to reach Washington this afternoon and would not stop unless severe weather was encountered. They carried a course including Augusta, Ga., Fayetteville, N. C., and Norfolk, Va., as a precaution should a landing be necessary.

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP).—Honors in return for the aviation which attended the arrivals abroad of Lindbergh, Lind and other Americans await the coming here of the French aviators, Costes and Lebrun.

Officials at Bolling Field, where the Frenchmen are expected to land, were not certain, however, that the pilots would complete their journey today, since rain was reported over a good part of their route.

Nine army planes and three navy planes were grounded to take the air and escort the Frenchmen here from a point about 15 miles down the Potomac.

An official welcoming party, including Secretary of War Davis, Secretary Wilbur, the acting secretary of state, Ambassador Claudel, and his staff, and scores of army and navy air officers and attaches of embassies and legations, ignored the elements in planning for the reception at the field. A military escort was ordered to accompany the fliers to the city, where the first honors will be bestowed at a dinner given by the National Aeronautic Association.

KIMBARK TO IMPROVE CROWN STREET PROPERTY.

Silas Kimbark has started work of improving his large garage property at 77 Crown street, converting the lower floor used for housing cars into two good sized stores. A hallway is to be constructed between the stores and a wide stairway will lead to an addition to be built over the present one story building. The upper story to be erected will be made into a modern apartment of 14 rooms which Mr. Kimbark will furnish and which he expects to rent to vaudeville and other performers or actors who will be engaged to play at the Road Theatre, the stage entrance being directly opposite the Kimbark building.

Cessation of the United States government's protection of American private investments in foreign countries is the question to be discussed on the trip.

Card Party at St. Joseph's.

Many beautiful gifts have been donated for the card party to be held at St. Joseph's school hall, corner of Wall and Pearl streets, on Thursday evening, February 1, at eight o'clock. This affair is being sponsored by the Children of Mary, who have been working earnestly for several weeks to insure an evening of enjoyment. Provision has been made for bridge players and for those wishing to play progressive pinocle as well as euchre. The bridge players will please bring their cards. Saratoga at Balboa.

Balboa, Canal Zone, Feb. 2 (AP).—The giant aircraft carrier Saratoga was tied up at the wharves of Balboa today, having accomplished the most difficult operation ever attempted in the Panama Canal. Because of the size of the ship, which is 105 feet across at its widest part, allowing only a clearance of two feet on each side, it took three days to maneuver her through locks of the canal.

ESMOND-BAUMES BILL PASSED IN SENATE

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 2 (AP).—The Senate today unanimously passed the Esmond-Baumes bill, sponsored by the state crime commission, calling for minimum prison term of 20 years for murder in the second degree. The same measure precipitated a sharp clash in the Assembly yesterday, but it also was passed there, and now goes to Governor Smith.

There was practically no debate on the measure in the upper house both majority leader John Knight and minority leader Bernard Dowling expressing satisfaction with its provisions.

Children of Mary At St. Peter's

The Children of Mary Society of St. Peter's Church, attended a very interesting and very Sunday and on Monday evening held their regular monthly meeting in the school hall. The organization was well represented at both events. It is the purpose, especially during the season of Lent, the spiritual director, the Rev. Joseph Huband, would like to see many more young ladies of St. Peter's Parish present for the reception of the regular monthly communion and bow out at the meeting.

Among the topics discussed at the monthly meeting was the proposal of the hierarchy of the United States to offer a spiritual banquet to Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament on her birthday, September 8, 1928. During the twenty-ninth International Eucharistic Congress to be held at Sydney, Australia, from the sixth to the eighth of that month. Every Catholic is expected to take part in the offering of the spiritual banquet and it was deemed proper that the Children of Mary should be leaders in the crusade of prayer. The society was urged to interest other members of their faith in the event. Those who offer prayers or good works for the success of the Eucharistic Congress will receive an indulgence of 200 days. The members of the Children of Mary will turn their spiritual bouquets into the spiritual director of the society.

The members of the Children of Mary are expected to supply cakes for the parish annual pre-Lenten social, which will be held on February 20.

A group of young ladies of St. Peter's Parish will attend the presentation "Veronica's Vigil," America's famous passion play, at Union City, N. J., in the near future. Those who wish to take the trip are advised to get in touch with officials of the society.

A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting during which the society was delightfully entertained with two pleasing playlets, "Moonshine" was presented by the Misses Gertrude Ditch and Florence Thurin. "Stage Struck" was put on by the Misses Marie and Rita Ketterer. The young ladies were heartily applauded for the way in which they upheld the well known dramatic ability of St. Peter's.

COLONIAL CHORISTERS AIM TO REVIVE FOLK SONGS

The ultimate aim of the Colonial Choristers, who give a concert at the Fair Street Reformed Church next Monday evening, is to bring to the people of this section a revival of the old English madrigals and folk tunes which have been sung to capacity houses in the larger cities this season. To effectively render songs of this type, a group of six mixed voices is required, and the choristers, now a quartet composed of Mabelle Wicks, Jeanne Mills, Joseph Craig and Vernon Miller, plan to add a mezzo soprano and another baritone to their number to round out a sextet and give the desired tone balance. The forthcoming concert is being presented by the Service Club of the Fair Street Church which hopes in addition to sponsoring a musical treat to raise sufficient funds thereby to enable it to fulfill its pledge to provide one year's sustenance for two children of the Near East.

Col. Lindsay Delights Rotary

Kingston Rotarians listened to the most enjoyable, witty and truly instructive address at their luncheon today that they have had the privilege of hearing in a long time. No sermon was preached, no moral was pointed and no product was boosted. The speaker just talked. He was Col. Fred Lindsay of the British army, veteran of four wars, Australian horseman, big game hunter in Africa and at present showman making a big hit at the Broadway Theatre in his exhibition of what can be done with a whip. There was not a dull second in the address and the speaker is a master of the art of using the English language at its best to describe events in a deliciously humorous manner. The only lesson taught, and that incidentally, was that "the more we get together the happier we'll be."

CANADA CHOSES FOR OLYMPIC MONEY FINALS

St. Moritz, Switzerland, Feb. 5 (AP).—Because of the absence of an American team from the Olympic hockey competition, Canada has been awarded the unprecedented honor of being chosen arbitrarily for the finals.

The remaining ten nations entered will be divided into three groups, the winner of each to play Canada in a series of three matches on February 17, 18, and 19.

Had the United States entered a team, "Burgomaster" Water, acting commissioner for the Olympic committee, told the Associated Press, "we would have divided the field of twelve teams into two groups, America heading one and Canada the other."

Honesty is the one card in the pack you can play at any time without thinking of how to play it.
